Dear Parents/ Carers,

Thank you so very much for your good wishes, cards, flowers and very generous gifts which I have received, following my cerebral haemorrhage at the end of May.

Whilst I am feeling much better now and the doctors are very pleased with the progress that I am making, unfortunately I am still suffering from headaches and extreme fatigue, especially if I try to do too much! This makes it very unlikely that I will be able to return to Wheatfield before the end of this academic year. I am obviously very disappointed about this as I am really missing everyone, especially the children and the general 'busyness' of school life!

I am, however, hoping to be well enough to come into school to see the children and staff before the end of term and to watch the Y6 performance and attend their Leavers Assembly.

Thank you once again for your kind thoughts and good wishes, which I really do appreciate.

With my very best wishes to you and your children.
