This Week at Wheatfield

Children have been marking 'British Science Week' by completing some scientific enquiries (across the 5 types of enquiry we cover). As the week has been interrupted, we will continue some of this work over the next fortnight and hopefully share some of this in a future newsletter.

Phil Winterburn - Headteacher

Brain Art Exhibition

A couple of weeks ago we announced that some pupils from Wheatfield had been highly commended in a competition to design Brain Art. This was run by Bristol University and the Royal West Academy (RWA).

Last Thursday, our winners were invited to the RWA for a prize giving evening and were able to see their art on display in the gallery.

Their work (along with that from other groups) will remain on display at the gallery until 9th April so why not pop along for a look? It would easily fill a morning and is only a short walk from Bristol Museum (which is also free to enter). If you're in that area then Castle Park is a short walk away and you might even dare to venture up the steep steps of Cabot Tower for spectacular views across the city! Full address below:

Royal West of England Academy,
Queen's Rd, BS8 1PX

Author Visit

On Tuesday, author Sean Taylor visited Wheatfield to inspire KS1 and Y3 with readings from his books and on the spot poetry! As well as signing over 70 books, he also led writing workshops with both Y2 and Y3. We all had a fantastic morning creating poems and learning what happens to hungry monsters!

-£1 to enter (pay at the office)

-We'll provide an egg to decorate

-Available from Friday 17th March

-Return by Wed 29th March

Water Bottles & Snacks

A reminder that children's water bottles should only contain water – no squash or juice.

Infant children (Reception, Y1 & 2) are provided with a free piece of fruit at snack time in the afternoon and can bring in a fruit snack for morning break each day.

Junior children (Y3-6) can bring in a fruit snack for morning break (no crisps or biscuits).

Please ensure that all water bottles and snack pots are labelled with your child's name. 😊

PE Uniform

A reminder that on PE days your child should be wearing NAVY joggers, shorts or hoodie along with a T-shirt in their house colours. Trainers may be worn on PE days but not on other days.

Thank you for your support with the above. All this information and more is available in our Parent Handbook which can be viewed here:
